Description

Antique Carved Oak W & H Quarter Striking Ting Tang Bracket Clock Sunburst Mounts. This wonderful antique bracket clock has a large oak case starting at the top with a shaped brass carry handle leading to four shaped brass mounts to the top of each corner as well as mounts to the corners of the mouldings. The body of the case is then profusely carved to the front and sides with floral designs. The sides and front of the case then have round mounts to each corner matching those to the top as well as beautifully brass sun mounts to the centre of the sides. There is then a further moulding to the bottom with the same pattern of brass mounts as the top leading to a final moulding, and four shaped brass feet. The dial is then brass and set out in black Roman numerals with smaller Arabic numerals marking the minutes. The centre of the dial is then brass with a continuation of the sunburst design seen on the sides of the case. The dial then has a shaped brass surround as well as two lovely shaped hands. Finally the dial has a round, bevelled glass set into a brass door to protect the dial. The movement is then wound from the front and accessed from the back and ticks away a...
