Description

Royal House Antiques is delighted to offer for sale this very rare circa 1790 George III Library writing desk secretaire by Gillows of Lancaster and London. Please note the delivery fee listed is just a guide, it covers within the M25 only for the UK and local Europe only for international, if you would like an accurate quote, please send me your postcode and I'll provide you with the exact price. A rare find, looking through Gillows of Lancaster and London 1730-1840 I've found a selection of similar examples, the drawer linings and dovetail joints are correct, as detailed in Volume II Chapter 7 page 111, the lock is correct, stamped I BRAMAH PATENT under the Crown for King George III, these locks were used by Gillows between 1784-97 as detailed again on Chapter 7-page 337 Volume II. The small white handles used on the internal drawers are also correct as seen in Volume II Chapter 7 page 28 and on many other desks and bookcases. Lastly two examples can be seen in Volume II page 283 and 284 of two desks which have similar secratiare drawers with the exact same writing slopes raised. Both have exactly the same easel backs. The timber is correct for the period, Cuban or ...
