Description

An unusual and nicely proportioned solid silver trinket box. The shape of the box is octagonal with a plain polished lid having a protruding floral twist border. It stands on four neat feet and is nice and sturdy. The hinged lid opens and closes perfectly and when opened reveals a lovely gilt wash to the underneath and a padded velvet blue lining covering the interior. Clear and crisp hallmarks are visible on the lip for the Birmingham Assay office with a date mark for 1913 and Lion Passant indicating sterling silver. The maker's mark is also visible for the silver maker: William Neale & Son Ltd with partial marks visible on the lip of the lid. A very lovely trinket box, in great condition, sturdy on it's feet and no marking or dents to the silver. Hallmarks: Birmingham 1913 William Neale & Son Ltd Measurements: Height: 5.2 cm Width at widest part: 8.3 cm Depth: 7.7 cm Weight :134 grams Weights and measurements are approximate.
