Description

A Stunning and unusual antique 15ct gold pendant set with the rarest of garnets: demantoid garnets, in their glorious shade of vivid green with pretty seed pearls. The pendant shape is curved diamond with a criss-cross centre housing the four green garnets and four seed pearls. It hangs from a flexible bale. On the back of the pendant are the hallmarks for Chester, 15ct gold, circa 1918. There is some evidence on the back of the pendant that it has been converted from a brooch. The pendant hangs on a new 9ct gold 20 inch chain. A wonderful gift for a lover of the unusual and rare antique jewellery and in fabulous condition. Hallmarks: Chester Assay Office 15ct gold. Measurements: Height of pendant (not including bale): 2.5 cm Width: 2.5 cm Chain length: 20 inches. Weight of necklace combined: 5 grams. Weights and measurements are approximate.
