Description

A beautiful rosewood fitted vanity box with brass stringing and trim with a vacant cartouche. Lined in original green velvet and fitted with eleven glass containers each with a silver lid. Seven of them are hallmarked James Vickery, London 1853. The four containers without the hallmark do bear silver lids which are not hallmarked. However they fit correctly and seem original with the same cut pattern verso as the other containers. There is a drawer with a key which reveals a section for jewellery which is lined in silk and leather. The inside of the lid opens to reveal a leather writing surface. A lovely piece in original and very good condition. We can despatch free of charge in UK mainland and calculate the cost for international delivery. Payment by bank transfer or PayPal
