Description

This is a gorgeous antique French Louis Revival gilt bronze mounted kingwood and amaranth bureau plat, Circa 1880 in date. The rectangular top has a decorative gilt bronze border, raised corner cartouches and a superb inset gold tooled green leather writing surface, above three frieze drawers on one side and dummy drawers on the other. It is freestanding, has fabulous decorative ormolu handles and mounts, working locks and keys and three capacious oak lined drawers for all your storage needs. It is raised on elegant cabriole legs, with figural gilt bronze masks, ending in lion's paw sabots. This is a truly lovely piece which will display beautifully in any interior. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished waxed and releathered in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
