Description

This is a wonderful and rare item; a Victorian solid silver stamp holder, clearly hallmarked on one side Birmingham 1898 and with the maker's marks: James Deakin & Sons. The holder has one compartment to hold the stamps. The base is a half oval shape and a nice plain polished silver. The lid shows an original Penny stamp exposed through a clear cover, with a silver frame surrounding. Underneath the lid the original burgundy coloured leather cover is exposed. The compartment inside has a gilt wash finish. Four neat ball feet complete the item. Great for a collector of stamp cases or Philatelist! Condition: In great condition. Hallmarks: Birmingham 1898 by James Deakin & Sons. Measurements: Height: 1.8 cm Width: 3 cm Depth: 3.3 cm Weight: 13.6 grams Weights and measurements are approximate.
