Description

A lovely 18th century Derby porcelain barrel shaped cider mug with moulded strapped bands and grooved strap handle. Finely painted in bright enamels with floral sprays in pink, orange, purple, yellow, green, blue and cyan with a red-brown rim. c.1760-1765. It measures 14.2cm (5 5/8") high and 10cm (4") wide. Condition is very good: there are three small chips to the foot rim but I'm pretty sure they are from manufacture. No other issues and no repairs or restoration. Very minor handling wear, mainly just to the enamel on the rim.
