Description

A superb Pipes o' Pan wind up gramophone from the early 20th Century. Internally it is obvious that this piece has seen little use, such is the good condition. The cabinet is one of the most unusual we have ever handled. The strongly figured mahogany veneers are actually fake and painted on, we've had to repolish the top due to ring marks however you can see the original effect under the lid it would fool anyone. The sides and front have crackled crazing on close inspection. A great looker and just serviced ready to use and enjoy.

Internal Ref: B-351
