Description

A fine pair of portraits, depicting an English Gentleman and his beautifully dressed wife, both posing with elegance, towards the painter. Both portraits are painted with good detail and clarity, with the colours still sharp and vibrant. Fully restored, cleaned, wax relined and re-varnished at a cost of £500 each. The original frames are both in reasonable condition, with just a few bits missing here and there, but not detracting from their lovely appearance and quite restorable. The Victorian period craftsmanship is extremely well demonstrated in the finishing of these amazing frames. Measurements for the actual canvas area are 29 1/2 Inches x 24 1/2 Inches. The overall size to include the magnificent frames is a huge 43 INCHES X 38 INCHES. THESE PORTRAIATS OF A VERY LARGE SCALE. The depth of the actual frame bordering the canvas is 7 Inches including the gilt slips. The overall condition is very good for their age, with the restoration improving greatly the overall appearance. There is some faint crackling on the Gentlemans portrait consistant with age. The face and facial expressions are brilliantly captured in this painting with great detail and precision showing i...
