Description

Set of 4 Antique Unrestored Completely Original Dining Chairs. A rare set of Victorian Louis Philippe French chairs, ideal for a collector or museum. We bring to you this impressive original set of Victorian (C1840) Rosewood dining chairs in an amazing original condition, these chairs are true historic survivors. Featuring a spectacular finely carved back frame around a padded centre, serpentine front rail with a moulded edge, fully upholstered sprung seat which finishes to typical French cabriole carved legs with original brass castors on Ebony wood wheels to the front legs. Although we are restorers and could restore these chairs, we have left them in the original condition because they feature the original individual scene tapestries to the seats and backs, making them very unique and rare. Please note, the material is brittle and not in good condition. The tapestry is very worn in more than one place and showing the original horse hair stuffing which can still be used and preserved on restoration. The inner padding is original, is not in good condition and they are not suitable to be used as they are but are ideal for display. The chairs solid Rosewood ...
