Description

Good mid - Victorian pierced silver bowl with a blue glass liner, in the style of a Dutch Brandy Bowl; of traditional oval form on an oval collet foot and lifting handles to each side. The piercing to the body of the bowl is of the highest quality, and the cast handles are a joy. Good size (see dimensions) and the quality expected from these great makers of the period. Please note: the light "thread" lines showing in the images of the blue glass liner are NOT damage, they are purely photography studio light reflections. London. 1859. Charles & George Fox. Length (from Handle tip to handle tip) 27cm Weight of silver 10 troy oz/310gm

Internal Ref: 28/1995
