Description

A fine and rare Gillows type large mahogany antique dining table. A fine Mahogany Extending Dining Table. Associated with Gillows The flame figured top composed of two D-end sections; each section with a beaded frieze on four turned legs with brass castors; two of the legs pulling out to support the extension leaves. 28¾" (73 cm) high, 39¼" (100 cm) wide, 57" (145 cm) long extending to 105" (267 cm) in length. There are two extra leaves with this table. In our opinion It would take a third. Condition. Excellent. Recently refinished top. We cannot confirm if this is a Gillows table but it is most certainly Gillows quality and they're quality and type of construction. This is most likely made by Gillows The sign of a genuine Gillows piece of furniture. Unfortunately a very large portion of Gillows furniture was not stamped so you see pieces associated to Gillows, due to the style, and design. The Gillows stamp can sometimes be seen under table tops, on the top edges of drawers, on the back legs of chairs or sometimes the signature would be written in pencil under drawer linings by the cabinet makers of the firm. You can look in the Gillows books to see the names of cabi...
