Description

Painted by Mellisa White. Four shelves and two drawers. Monochromatic fish scales entirely cover all three sides whilst the inside is painted red ochre. The semi-scallops are stenciled in three shades of grey on a white background and a dark grey shelf divides the top and bottom. Distressing and waxing was a joy as the buffet's old layers of paint and texture merged with my new brushwork. A final buff brings the patina to life. A truly unique cupboard.
