Description

This is an antique Bavarian beer stein. A German, pewter jug with decorative relief, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920. Superb craftsmanship extolled by the striking relief detail. Displays a desirable aged patina. Pewter body in very good original order with pleasing tonality. Polished interior with minimal signs of historic tarnish. Hinged lid with figural mask of a soldier holding his rifle. Of tapered form, the lid further decorated with foliate garlands. Ornate relief scene to the circumference depicts soldiers returning from war. Multiple figures stand proudly ahead of a detailed town scene to the background. Scrolled handle accentuated with tactile ornamental cabochon. Raised upon a tapering circular base with foliate border detail. Circular 'Angel and Balance' stamped maker's mark to base. This is a fascinating antique Bavarian beer stein, with delightful detail and form. Delivered polished and ready to enjoy.
