Description

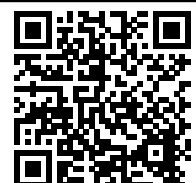

Fine late C18th George III Sheraton period mahogany serpentine front sideboard of compact proportions. Raised on 6 elegant finely-drawn square tapering legs terminating with elongated spade type feet. Fitted with 3 oak-lined drawers, comprising a deep drawer to each end and a long centre drawer, all with satinwood crossbanding and retaining their original patinated brass ring handles. The end drawers with satinwood crossbanded oval panels, with cross-banding and boxwood string inlay. The bowed centre with a shaped frieze above the 'kneehole'. The legs all with corresponding boxwood string inlay. The serpentine outline top with a boxwood strung edge, broad satinwood crossbanding decorated with trailing floral penwork decoration. The single piece figured mahogany top with minor historic water-marks but crucially retaining the original polished surface which has achieved an excellent mellow colour. The rear of the sideboard fitted with a decorative patinated brass rail three-quarter gallery upstand with classical urn finials and scroll-work side returns. The whole in excellent original 'as found' condition with a consistent pleasing colour and patina. A cla...
