Description

Unusual English chest of drawers by Daniell & Sons of Wigmore Street, London. Circa 1830. Height 95 cm, Width 117 cm and Depth 60 cm. This chest of drawers is in flame mahogany with beautiful colour and patina. It features cross-banded decoration throughout. The decorative inlaid top sits over a pedestal arrangement of three drawers across the top and an additional two to each pedestal. At the back of the knee-hole is a cupboard inlaid with a decorative motif and cross-banded. The cupboard contains a single shelf. Further decorative inlay adorns the sides of this piece and the whole is raised on two sets of bracket feet at the front.
