Description

Early C19th George IV period mahogany library or writing table of free-standing form . A high quality mahogany library or writing table of good scale and imposing presence, fitted with 2 frieze drawers and corresponding 'dummy drawers' to verso . Raised on platform ends with boldly carved architectural scrolled corbel details , supporting 'standard end' uprights , the design taking its influences from classical antiquity. The top of the uprights with shaped bracket supports with applied circular roundels or paterae detail . Superbly-figured 'plum pudding' or quilted mahogany top with gently-rounded corners .The ends of the friezes with stepped and panelled reserve corners. The whole raised on compressed and cupped bun-type feet with 'concealed' patent brass castors and wheels each stamped "Lewty Patent" with a crown above . The 2 cock-beaded full-depth drawers fitted original turned mahogany knob pulls and brass escutcheons, with working brass locks and a key . The mahogany-lined drawers with quarter section 'dust-bead' corners . In excellent original condition with a rich colour and patina, retaining it's original surface and skin . Finely selected high-grad...
