Description

Pair of impressive early C19th cast-iron terrace or garden vases of imposing scale. Elegant campana design bowls of shallow tazza form with gadrooned or reeded bodies, the edge with a cast ovolo or 'egg-and-dart' design. Raised on spreading fluted socle supports and mounted on their original tapered and stepped plinth bases. In 'fresh-to-market' original condition with an old flakey paint finish. Minor historic to chips to the ovolo rim edges. The vases are cast in 3 sections for ease of movement and transport and will need to be safely secured when positioned at purchasers risk.
