A sublime table with a one of a kind restoration. The table came to me as you see it after being restored by Alex from "The Restorers" Drew Pritchard's spin off TV show to Salvage Hunters. Alex glued and clamped the top block then had made these custom mounts using plaster I think it was mixed with real bronze power, they then had a glass gallery top made so the piece can be used as a normal occasional or kitchen work table. We further restored the piece by fully worm treating it three times, securing the base frame joints and lastly re aligning the drawers. The piece is now fully restored and ready for the new owner. Other than the above the timber has been deep cleaned hand condition waxed and hand polished. The bronzed...
