Description

An Antique Edwardian Sterling silver trinket box which has a plain shaped body, a hinged lid with particularly pretty flower and leaf decoration and resting on four patterned feet. The inside of the lid has been nicely gilded and the interior of the box still has the original lining. This trinket box would make a desirable addition to a collection and an acceptable gift. It was hallmarked in Birmingham for 1903 by Henry Matthews and remains in excellent condition. Postage is being offered as complimentary within the price of this silver box.
