Description

A fine example of a Victorian Sterling Silver stilton scoop. It has a simple fiddle pattern handle with an engraved H on the handle. It is good quality, weighing approximately 83g. It is fully hallmarked for London, 1892. The makers mark is slightly obscured, it looks like HSC but I cannot assign it to a maker. It is in very good condition. There are no major damages and it displays beautifully. There are some faint surface scratches and a few light marks but nothing detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK delivery £5, rest of the world £20
