Description

A splendid William IV period mahogany 4 door breakfront library bookcase. Of fine construction in solid mahogany with attractive flame mahogany veneers. This bookcase is of very generous proportions and offers significant capacity for the display of your books. The top section has a pair of central glazed doors, flanked by a pair of outer glazed doors. They all open to access interiors with adjustable shelving. The doors are all lockable with the key being supplied. The base section has a similar arrangement of cupboard doors with shelving behind. The whole bookcase is surmounted by bold corbels and a charming cornice. Sympathetically refinished in our workshops and now offered for sale in excellent overall condition, with a wonderful rich colour and patina. It splits down into sections for ease of installation.
