Description

This is a superb quality 19th century Burr oak Gueridon table. The figuring to the wood is wonderful and the carved details are very fine. No major faults other than a couple of light marks to the top. The colour works so well in a number of interiors and would lift anything put on it. Lovely claw feet which lead to a very shapely leg that is topped with scroll details. Height 71cm Diameter of top 56cm Width of base 73cm Price includes UK mainland delivery
