Description

George I walnut chest of drawers This George I walnut chest of drawers was made circa 1720. A chest of this type would have been made for one of the major homes in a major country estate, often using the timber from timber farmed on the estate from fallen trees. This fine example that has fantastic colour and patina. It stands on straight bracket feet with the usual arrangement of drawers, 2 half width drawers at the top and a further 3 graduated drawers under, all fitted with period open brass plate swing handles. The drawers and top with herringbone banding. This wonderful chest of drawers can be used in a downstairs setting as well as looking superb in a bedroom. Imagine this beautiful George I walnut chest of drawers in your home and the special feel it will bring. 97cms wide 38ins 54cms deep 21ins 95cms high 37 1/2ins Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
