Description

A fine large mid 19th Century soup tureen bearing the crest of a stags head. Bearing the marks to both pieces for 'GR 926'. This is a substantial heavy piece of tableware with a very clean interior. The condition is overall very good with very little signs of plate wear, a couple of small knocks to the edge and minor scratches due to age and use. The good fitting lid is ever so slightly raised at the corners, but this allows the insertion of a soup ladle. A very useable piece. Weight approx 2.2kg. Length from handle to handle approx 35cm. Total height approx 24cm. Width approx 20cm.
