Description

A Superb Quality George III Period Mahogany Bowfronted Dwarf Linen Press Cupboard Having Well Figured Bow Panelled Doors Enclosing Original Sliding Trays Raised On Elegant Original Splayed Feet (It is much less comment find these elegant "dwarf" linen presses than there full size counterparts, especially ones that are of the quality and craftsmanship of this one. It has been constructed from high grade mahogany and the bowed shape adds a significant elegance to the piece. The superbly figured doors open to reveal three original and adjustable sliding trays which are incredibly functional. There are so many different rooms this piece could be used in and so many different purposes that it could be used for that we cannot even begin to list them here. All in all an incredibly attractive, elegant and functional piece of furniture which remains in excellent condition and ready to go straight into use in somebody's home or office environment.). Circa 1800 Height - 36in Width - 40in Depth - 23in
