Description

A beautiful antique stationery cabinet dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It has a lovely warm patina with a burr walnut sloped front with brass escutcheon. The doors opens out to reveal a series of racks for holding papers and letters. There is also a pen tray and a glass inkwell. Below this is a large drawer with recessed brass handle, held in place with a small brass pin. It is a good quality example and there is a compliments slip in the drawer from the Cabinet Office which was there when I bought it so I have left it with the box. It is in good condition and comes with a working key. There are a few small knocks and marks around the outside, general signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. There have been a few small repairs here and there and a small slither of wood has been added to the edge of the door to ensure they close tightly. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions at all please ask. Tracked UK delivery £15.
