Description

An unusual Victorian oak cheval mirror with barley twist columns and on shaped plinth supports, the chamfered edges to the finials, base and mirror frame give a distinct Arts & Crafts feel. In good condition with original colour and some quarter sawn grain. It does have some fading and signs of wear as should be expected for the age. A lovely looking mirror that would compliment country, Tudor or Arts & Crafts interiors alike. The price shown is for the cheval mirror only, the matching four poster bed is available separately at the time of listing.
