Description

Set of 6 C18th George III period mahogany dining chairs of Chippendale design . Good broad proportions and scale , carved mahogany interlaced and pierced splat-back dining chairs raised on moulded square 'Marlborough' fore-legs united by 'H' stretchers . Serpentine-shaped carved top rails with carved edges and central carved leaf motif. Have been recovered and reupholstered approximately 20 years ago , when the surface of the mahogany frames was cleaned and waxed resulting in a partial loss of the original 'skin' and aged patina. Nevertheless a mid C18th set of George III period chairs in strong and sturdy condition with a rich colour. No breaks, losses or significant repairs. One with an historic 'estate' metal-plate repair to rear of top rail . Clean, usable blue corded fabric seat covers . H 38" W 21" D 18" England c.1760
