Description

This is a fabulous quality Regency period sofa that we have upholstered in a nice weight grey linen. The whole piece is very elegant and would work well in a number of spaces. There a couple of small losses to the top blocks of the front and back left legs but nothing to noticeable or structural. The legs have large brass cup casters that all run smoothly. The size of the piece means it would sit 3-4 easily. The mahogany frame is in very clean condition as well. Great shape and lovely carved details make this a very decorative piece.
