Description

A fantastic condition original table We are delighted to bring to you this fine example of a rare small Georgian (circa 1830) bow fronted 1 drawer side table which is completely original and made from solid Mahogany, ideal for any period property. This table is in an outstanding original condition featuring a beautiful lightly faded mahogany colour and French polished finish. The table features cock-beading to the drawer edges complemented by ebony and boxwood inlaid stringing to the bottom of underside rail which is carried across the sides. The drawer is complete with its 2 original solid brass Georgian ring handles. The finely dovetailed drawer is in great condition, smoothly operating and clean inside. The table is solid with no loose joints or wobbles. This simple yet elegant table is ideal to be used as a dressing table with the use of a toilet mirror, as a compact yet very usable desk or as a side/hall table as it was originally intended. This table has just been carefully cleaned and waxed by us, maintaining its original patina whilst giving a lovely natural sheen. Please note; This item is in fantastic condition for its age as shown by the photographs ...
