Description

A lovely French singing bird in a brass cage. In good condition for its age, the bird sings beautifully and quite loudly with its beak moving in time to its song and its head and tail also moving in time. The birds feathers are real, deep red and in good condition. A very good example of its kind. We can send a small video of the bird singing on request. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and can quote for international delivery. Payment by bank transfer or Paypal.
