Description

A superb silver plated brass table lamp, stamped Palmer & Co, and later converted to electricity, late 19th century in date. The Puginesque column is raised upon an integrated hexagonal plinth base, cast in relief with paper scrolls and ovals and has been converted from an 1830s Palmer oil lamp. Provenance: Ruyton Hall, Shropshire. Add some classic style to your home with this lovely lamp. Condition: In excellent working condition having been beautifully cleaned and the lamp professionally rewired, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 64 x Width 22 x Depth 22. Dimensions in inches: Height 2 feet, 1 inch x Width 9 inches x Depth 9 inches. Situated near Shrewsbury, Ruyton Hall is a substantial and historic house dating back the 16th century. For over 400 years, the house was the seat of the Kynaston Family, a prominent local family of whom many served as Members of Parliament through the 17th and 18th centuries. Our reference: A1994
