Description

A fine quality 19th Century Burr Chest of Drawers, it could be burr walnut but also burr elm is possible. Nice block from drawers that all run smoothly fitted with original handles, the construction is excellent as can be seen on the drawer dovetails and even the drawer linings are mahogany. We have replaced the feet as the originals had seen better days but they are an exact replica. This lovely chest is in excellent condition having been re finished to a very high standard.
