Description

An attractive pair of early 19th century hand painted miniature portraits depicting a gentleman and lady, c.1810. The portraits are of good quality and remain in a generally good condition overall. The gentleman has some minor damage to the frame glass and a small area of wear to the left of the same and bottom right corner (please see photographs). The portrait itself remains intact with no paint losses; he remains an attractive work with clear well painted features. A lovely set.
