Description

This stylish oval antique gallery tray which is made of English dark oak has a silver plated gallery, two wooden handles and a central oval blank silver plated plaque. The handsome tray which dates from the late 19th / early 20th century is a good size, sits on four bun feet and is a very nice quality piece. This tray not only looks great but is also a good usable bar accessory and is perfect for carrying drinks or for displaying barware. Condition: Excellent antique condition with only light signs of use in keeping with age. Some small areas of tarnish. No holes, breaks, splits or damage.
