Description

This handsome solid silver capstan inkwell which is fully hallmarked for 1923 is made by renowned silversmith S Blanckensee & Sons Ltd and is a nice large size. This antique inkwell comes with it's original glass liner, has a wooden base and has a pair of tennis rackets to the top lid so may have been a tennis trophy. An interesting piece of antique silver that looks great on display on a desk and would make a nice gift for a tennis enthusiast. Could be used to keep pins or paperclips in. Condition: Excellent antique condition with only very light signs of use in keeping with age. No damage, breaks or splits. A few tiny dings and a tiny nibble to the edge of glass insert.
