Description

A very interesting and unusual Anglo Indian Colonial silver coin box. It tests as silver and dates c1900-1920. The coins are dated 1877 and 1887. It has been unusually designed being made from one rupee coins in a stack. It is in super condition being free from dings splits and repairs. It measures approx. 1.25 inches (3.1cms) across by 0.75 inch (2cms) tall and is heavy for its size weighing 42 grams. A very unusual and interesting piece.
