Description

This is a wonderful antique Regency Old Sheffield silver plated tea urn, Circa 1820 in date. This handsome antique Old Sheffield samovar has been silver plated on copper, with a reeded finial, foliate handles and a decorative tap. It has half fluted decoration to the body and lid with gadroon borders, all typical of the period. It is raised on stylish lion's paw feet. This tea urn is of unique quality and design and will add an Imperial look to your surroundings, which is sure to make it a treasured piece for any discerning collector. Condition: In excellent condition. As an antique item, the samovar shows signs of use commensurate with age, these minor condition issues are mentioned for accuracy and, as seen in the accompanying photographs, the samovar displays beautifully. Dimensions in cm: Height 45 x Width 35 x Depth 34. Dimensions in inches: Height 1 foot, 6 inches x Width 1 foot, 2 inches x Depth 1 foot, 1 inch. Old Sheffield Plate - or 'fused plate' as it is sometimes known, was the first commercially viable method of plating metal. The material was accidentally invented by Thomas Boulsover, of Sheffield's Cutlery Company, in 1743. While trying to...
