Description

This is a very handsome Victorian mahogany glazed cabinet. The chinoiserie detail around the top with the carved feet shows the quality of this piece. Overall condition is very good with only minor faults consistent with age such as a small loss to the left side of the carved detail around the top. The glass is original and is without cracks. Good size and ideal to display your important treasures or my preferred use as a drinks cabinet. A well designed piece that would stand out in a number of interiors.
