Description

A well presented 18th century antique oak side table. The two plank top has a moulded edge and sits above a single fitted draw with two brass swan neck handles. The antique oak side table is raised on four square and turned legs with a decorative turned central stretcher. Item Ref; M-2677 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 75cm / Width – 71cm / Depth – 47cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age related marks and staining to the top (pictured). There are some shrinkage cracks forming to the top also. The antique oak side table remains structurally solid and sound with the draw running well. There is some evidence of an old historic woodworm near the back, this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
