Description

Regency brass inlaid side cabinet This Regency brass inlaid side cabinet was made circa 1820. The cabinetmaker had selected rosewood that was the height of fashion for wealthy families to show their wealth by displaying their ability to own a piece made of the timber. It also has brass inlaid stringing another very fashionable feature of the Regency period. The pair of cupboard doors are lined in pleated yellow silk. The cabinet stands on splay legs. This cabinet will provide you with fantastic storage and also at the same time give you the pleasure of owning such a beautiful piece. 101.5cms high 40ins 92cms high 36ins 37cms deep 14 3/4ins Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
