Description

A striking Victorian mahogany hall stand, the central column houses a mirror and supports four arms with eight turned hat and coat hooks. The small table has a hinged lid and bentwood retainers for sticks and umbrellas. This hall stand has a removable metal drip tray and stands on four small turned feet. It is in good original condition, there are minor marks compatible with age and the mirror has attractive foxing. This well proportioned hall stand would sit well in any hall, taking up minimum space but offering excellent facilities for coats, hats, umbrellas, keys, gloves etc. Sticks not included. c. 1880 Width: 33.25" 84.5 cm Depth: 9.25" 23.5 cm Height: 74.5" 189 cm
