Description

Victorian walnut inlaid writing table This Victorian walnut inlaid writing table was made circa 1870. Made in a high-end workshop in England but using the high French design, these desks are often known as bonheur du jour. The kingwood banded and burr walnut top with a leather writing surface has a super structure to the rear that is surmounted by a fine pierced gilt gallery, and the top edge with fine cast gilt brass mounts. Its drawer with a porcelain hand painted plaque in the Sevres. It stands on the classic elegant cabriole legs with gilt brass mounts to the knees running down the leading edge and to the toes. Imagine working behind this wonderful bonheur du jour and the pleasure it will bring. 107.5cms wide 42ins 61cms deep 24ins 101cms high 39 1/2ins Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
