Description

Sorry about the photos, it has just arrived into my warehouse and needs only a slight clean and tidy up before being ready for sale. So many of these pass through my hands without ever being exposed as they get seen on the way to the cleaners, I get a phone call, and bobs your uncle, its gone! This is a lovely, soft coloured antique carpet with a gingery-terracotta palette, lovely white corners and an elegant medallion in a less busy than usual field-hence 'Serapi'. Which is just a trade label for a better quality Heriz.
