Description

A fantastic and very rare antique William IV period swivel desk chair. This was made in England, it dates from around the 1840-1860's. This has a wonderful design, with very generous proportions and a beautifully carved mahogany frame. It sits on a splayed mahogany base, with porcelain casters. A fantastic and very rare English antique early Victorian / William IV period swivel desk chair, dating from around the 1840-50's period. This has a wonderful design, with very generous proportions and a beautifully carved mahogany frame. It sits on a quadrate cabriole legged mahogany base, with porcelain casters. This has been re-upholstered at a later date in high quality brown leather, we have just had the leather revived and hand coloured by our leather restorer. It is in great overall condition, the mahogany frame has also been re-polished. It swivels and rolls smoothly, it is comfortable, sturdy & full of character. Width – 31 inches , 79 cm Depth – 25 inches , 64 cm Height – 31 inches , 79 cm
