Description

A super quality made 19thc Brass Snuff Box....to me it has everything going for it.....it is engraved with Barley & Hops and also a pair of crossed Churchwardens Pipes flanked by a Pitcher of ale and an early wine glass, it has the name of the owner Rt Hogg , dated 1844....as if that is not enough it is stamped on the inside of the box with the makers name W.Howe, who had a workshop in Wolverhampton. In excellent condition with no damage....and note the quality of the hinge....so well made and strong, English. 19thc.

Internal Ref: MS 7274
