An imposing wide Victorian hinged silver cuff with a lovely antique patina. A very wearable piece. The bangle is hallmarked for sterling silver, Birmingham, 1882, and bears the sponsor's mark B&L. The bracelet is in very good antique condition; there are several minor dinks and scratches across the surface but no significant dents and nothing which impacts the overall look of the piece when worn. Both the hinge and clasp are in excellent working order, the bangle opens easily when you press and slide the catch, and clicks shut securely.
