Description

A lovely Edwardian silver mounted cut lead crystal scent bottle with hallmarks for Chester 1903. The maker's mark appears only as a W. The silver top is decorated with an ornate foliage design and has a good hinge and stopper. The crystal body is cut with a central band of smooth segments interspersed with delicate diamond cut panels, all of which cross cross at the shoulder into a complex and glittering pattern. The base is star cut. The crystal is beautifully clear and the condition is immaculate. The whole piece sparkles.
